Inmates housed in the Pend Oreille County Corrections have the ability to purchase items from an independent commissary provider. The company does not currently provide an option from friends or family members to access the inmate's commissary account. A person may drop money off for the inmate before or after visiting or send a money order to the facility in care of the inmate. If sending a money order, make the money order out to Pend Oreille Corrections, not to the inmate. Indicate in the send envelope which inmate the money order is intended for.

If the inmate is released prior to a commissary order delivery, the commissary is held for thirty (30) days. After 30 days, the items are destroyed or distributed to indigent inmates by a designate officer.

Commissary items delivered after release of an inmate may be requested and picked up during visiting sign-up times.
